Exports of Fresh Fruits and Veggies

About Us

We are a Mexican fresh fruit and vegetable grower and trading company that seeks to place Mexico under a modern, professional, integral and effective concept as a leading producer worldwide.

Integrating more than 28 years of experience in the internationalization of Mexican companies and the attraction of foreign direct investment, Real Vintage is created to develop and strengthen the Mexican offer of fresh products to the international buyers and export them directly.

With great interest in developing supply chains of small and medium size producers to improve their living conditions. We eliminate the intermediation that does not add value and we take the product from the field to the market. We built an alliance with the grower, we helps them to develop them to get the certifications and follow the agricultural good practices and we sell and export the product directly.

Mission

- We deliver fresh products with high standards of quality in appearance and shape, taking care of the small details that make us reliable suppliers.
- Our distribution and logistics processes allow us to reach international markets throughout the year, becoming allies and partners of our suppliers, wholesalers and distributors of produce.
- Strengthen producers with training and technical assistance to achieve certification and compliance with Good Agricultural Practices.

Vision

- Real Vintage is present and known in the international market, with constant growth of 20%, both in the integration of new producers and access to more customers and markets.
- Small and medium producers, our strategic partners, have incorporated innovation and technology processes into their products.
- We are the first Mexican brand of fruit and fresh produce that offers powerful solutions to its producing partners and its customers. Always fresh products in different countries.
- Each year we are integrating new qualified suppliers and more Mexican products.

Objectives

- Strengthen the image and brand of Real Vintage as the premium brand of high quality fresh Mexican produce. We bring experiences to importers and fruit distributors who seek safety, consistency and service.
- Slow growth, but steady and without pause.
- Diversify Mexico's exports to non-traditional markets and those with which we have signed free trade agreements.
- Integrate the supply of small and medium producers through a supplier development program.
- Give the growers and partners tools to achieve international certification in all processes.
- Ensure international distribution logistics.
